

HETTLEMAN LECTURES

Presentations by two of UNC's most distinguished young scholars – winners of the 2017 Phillip and Ruth Hettleman Prizes for Artistic and Scholarly Achievement

Presenting at 1:00 p.m.

Assisting Death in America: A Cultural Account of a New Medical Frontier

Mara Buchbinder, PhD, Associate Professor of Social Medicine and Adjunct Associate Professor of Anthropology

Presenting at 2:00 p.m.

Survival of the Richest: How Wealth, Race and Place Affect Cancer Outcomes

Stephanie Wheeler, PhD, Associate Professor of Health Policy and Management

Tuesday, May 1, 2018

1:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Tate Turner Kuralt Auditorium

Refreshments will be served

THE UNIVERSITY of NORTH CAROLINA
at CHAPEL HILL